

Constructing Excellence

East of England Regional Awards 2016

Achiever of the Year

Winner: Dayle Bayliss,
Dayle Bayless Associates, dayle@daylebayliss.co.uk,
07930 135821

Dayle has achieved amazing success, establishing a locally well-respected consultancy and project management business with contracts from the National Trust and English Heritage to who she supplies design, survey and assessments.

Client of the Year

Winner: Big Sky Developments

Stuart Bizley, sbizley@smbproperty.co.uk, 07786 515289
Submitted by Adrian.Peacock@john-youngs.co.uk, 07980786817

A Local Authority company created to develop the locality with affordable housing and commercial premises. All the personnel are contracted from specialist organisations while income from sales and rents maintains a viable company.

Health and Safety

Winner: ISG Contracting for Stoke Quay Ipswich

Chris.Lawrence@isgplc.com, 01473 335230

An extensive development, fully encompassing subcontractors, achieved 1.9 million hours without an LTA. A comprehensive H&S programme included extensive working at height training, safety and health equipment training, daily briefings and a “Don’t Walk By” campaign ensuring near miss reporting and learning.

Heritage

Winner: Hudson Architects for Boardman House,
Anthony Hudson,
Anthony@hudsonarchitects.co.uk, 01603766220

Celebrating the features of the Grade II listed building designed by architect Edward Boardman in 1897 and sympathetically creating a light and inspiring environment for the School of Architecture, Norwich University of the Arts.

Innovation

Winner: Morgan Sindall for The Enterprise Centre,
UEA Norwich, Steve Brock,
steve.brock@morgansindall.com, 01603 666669

Achieving BREEAM Outstanding and Passivhaus at £3,411/M2 by innovation, including utilising locally grown timber framing, developing local thatched cassettes for external cladding and developing concrete mixes to reduce carbon and simplify providing a polished finish.

Integration & Collaborative Working

Winner: R G Carter for Blackdale Residences, UEA,
Grant Keys, drayton.estimated@rgcarter.co.uk,
01603 867355

Open book, BIM 3D modelling, early involvement, a one team approach, and close liaison with neighbours ensured a 14-month build and £52,500 per bedroom student accommodation to BREEAM Excellent. Close collaboration on the CLT structure and pod bathrooms maximised offsite working.

Leadership & People

Winner: R G Carter,

Grant Keys, drayton.estimateding@rgcarter.co.uk

Measured by achieving IIP Gold and Champion status, examiners noted the development of a culture that builds capability and expands the scope and level of responsibility of the wider team. R G Carter runs its own Training Academy with NVQ accreditation and offering 150 different courses.

SME of the Year

Winner: Extremis Technology, pop-up shelters,

Julia Glenn, Julia@extremistechnology.com, 01953 859100.

Developed for humanitarian aid the easily transported shelters erect in ten minutes without any specialist tools. Repeat deployment is possible with a 15-year life expectancy. A trial is underway in the Dominican Republic, and a license awarded in Nepal with one pending for India, work continues with a development of a design for a pop-up clinic.

Sustainability and Project of the Year

Winner: BAM Nuttall for Wallasea Wild Coast,

Dave Bugden, dave.bugden@bamnuttall.co.uk,
07771 570739

Creation of a 670ha wildlife reserve for the RSPB, through the beneficial use of 3million tonnes of spoil from London Crossrail project. Barges transport spoil to site saving on trucking exhaust and movements, creating a large mosaic of wetland habitats and footpaths that benefit people and wildlife.

Value

Winner: Purcell for United Reform Church,

Amelia Sissons, amelia.sissons@purcelluk.com,

01603 674444

Five months refurbishment of Grade II listed building for £400,000 transformed the building from something of limited value to a flexible well-utilised venue paying back many times the costs.

Young Achiever of the Year

Winner: Ben Llewellyn, John Youngs Limited,

Saul Humphrey, saul.humphery@rgcarter.co.uk, 01603 628421

Ben started in ground works then estimating, moving to contracts management and more recently site manager, embracing along the way a commitment to collaboration, quality and value.

Highly Commended in the SME of the Year Category

Accolade Measurement, Melanie Nanayakkara, mel.n@accolademeasure.co.uk, 01707377448

Load testing & structural monitoring service.

2110 Consult, Richard.Taylor@2110consult.com, 01727 790902

Working with consultant groups to challenge the norm, and providing party wall and neighbourly matters service with basements a speciality.